McADOO COLUMN NEARING COLLAPSE

President Coolidge's Son Is Dead

DESPERATE BATTLE FOR LIFE ENDED

Death Shadow Again Cast Over White House
RESULT OF LITTLE BLISTER

Medical Science Defeated by Blood Poisoning

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — Death once more cast its shadow today over the White House, claiming Calvin Coolidge Jr., the 16 year old son of the president.

A courageous struggle of five days that stood off the final claim of acute blood poisoning to the utmost, ended last night.

The younger son of the president died at Walter Reed hospital where he had lain in his desperate fight for life since he was removed there last Saturday that every source of medical science might be invoked to save his life.

Wasted in strength by the ravaging spread of the septic poisoning that resulted from an almost unnoticed blister which developed on his foot while playing tennis a week ago, the youth fought a futile battle through yesterday.

Losing ground steadily, he yet amazed his physicians by the tenacity with which he clung to the slender thread of life and his fortitude under the difference of the complications that attended the spread of the treacherous disease. He collapsed early in the night, and death occurred at 10:20 o'clock.

PARENTS AT BEDSIDE

Forced in the last hours to abandon the desperate hope they had held for his recovery, based much on the courage and fighting spirit they knew he had, the president and Mrs. Coolidge faced the end at their son's bedside. They had kept the long vigil there unbroken save for an occasional hurried return to the White House yesterday and Sunday.

Plainly showing their order of sorrow, the mother and father left the hospital at once. Mrs. Coolidge, the president's wife, as she walked to the automobile to drive to the White House. As the car swung down the long avenue toward the executive mansion they were joined by another with C. Bassett Slipp, the president's secretary.

The mother was joined as she entered the White House by Mrs. Frank W. Stearns, a close friend of the family, and White House hostess, with her husband. The president and Mrs. Coolidge who were said to have borne up bravely, went at once to the room and at midnight the White House was entirely darkened.

John, the elder son, who had been ordered the ordeal of the room, who had been a constant companion, was his room for his parents returned and rushed up stairs.

RUEFUL ABRASION

Those who watched the struggle of the sixteen year old lad against the terrific odds of the disease which swept thru his system, agreed that only a fortunate set of will and character unusual at any age had kept him so long. It was on Saturday that the venomous nature of the infection was definitely disclosed. The trifling abrasion had resulted from the blister on Monday was so little that he had appeared at the budget meeting of government officials, where he saw his older brother.

On Wednesday, however, the slough of the infection had increased, and on Saturday, in an army ambulance, with his father at his side, Calvin Jr. hastened to Walter Reed hospital, on the outside of Washington, for an operation which it was hoped might reduce to a new blister in the tissues of his leg.

HOSPITAL WING CLARIFIED

For the reception of the patient and also to provide temporary quarters for the president and Mrs. Coolidge that they might remain constantly near him, the wing of the hospital was transformed. The operation was successful in that it established a drain for accumulating the matter. Although the youth showed a slight improvement after the work was done by his physicians.

LIMA RALLIES TO RELIEF OF STORM AREA

Lima Realtors Take Collection for Victims In Lorain And Other Cities—Kiwanis Singers to Give Program—Other Plans Announced

Lima organizations Tuesday moved toward the aid of stricken families in the storm district along the lake front. This was in answer to appeals sent out by state organizations and by Mayor Earl Moyer.

Members of the Lima Realtors association thru a committee consisting of C. R. Baechler, president, and Fred Fisher, secretary, collected $142.50 and sent it to the state association for use at Lorain and other places where needed.

Members of the farm bureau have been asked by Governor Donahue to cooperate with the Kiwanis in the county in collecting supplies and money for the stricken area. Ed Stalter, president of the farm bureau, and F. C. Jenkins, master of the granges, will be in charge.

Banks throughout the city announced an increase in the contributions which have been received. Now that citizens realize the gravity of the situation it is believed a generous response will be seen. Approximately $7,500.00 will be needed in the reconstruction work it is said.

One hundred and fifty members of the Lima Kiwanis Harmonic Society will sing, and members of the Lima Orchestra Club will appear in concert in a joint program at Memorial Hall, arrangements for which are being furthered by Don John of the Harmonic Society and the proceeds of which will be used to aid in the reconstruction of the storm-swept areas. It was announced Tuesday.

County Commissioners have agreed to turn the hall over to the society for use of that night, as their part of the work to help further the fund-raising campaign. John said. The Commission has also voted to go on record as approving the project.

Solos, chorus work, concert selections, and other numbers are included in the tentative program for the affair. Selections which won first awards at the Youngstown Elstodoff this year will also be on the program for the singers.

An appeal which has been sent out by Mrs. Lee E. Moore, of Columbus, secretary of the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion, to the branch clubs throughout the state, has been echoed by Mrs. Liel Ericson, president of the Lima order, and Lima residents are being asked to take clothing and bedding, especially for children, to the Legion Hall, third floor, Harper-bldg., of Friday for relief of destitute children and others in the Lorain district.

Donations will be taken to Lorain in machines on Saturday, and will be left at Legion headquarters there for distribution. This action on the part of the Auxiliary follows that of various organizations throughout the state, who are doing all in their power to effect a rejuvenation in the devastated districts.

STREET PROGRAM BEING RUSHED BY CONTRACTORS

With Main-st completely paved from the Ottawa river bridge to the intersection of Market-st with the Public Square, it is the intention of city officials and paving contractors to open this portion of the street Wednesday for traffic. George B. Walther stated Tuesday that the entire west side of the street will have been opened by Saturday.

Workmen are at present engaged in laying the combination stone and asphalt base for the sheet asphalt on the north side of the square.

Also by the end of this week, Walther expects to have five streets out of 20, all of which he says he will have completed by August 10, ready for asphalt. They are High-st, McDonnell-st, Ash-ton-st, Runyan-st and Cole-st.

FIRE TAKEN $17,000 TOLL
CLEVELAND, Ohio — Damage estimated at $175,000 was done when fire last night destroyed the largest of several stages owned by the Hal Koch Studios, Inc. The blaze, according to studio officials, was started by a smoke pot used during the filming of a scene.

2 CHILDREN TAKEN FROM CLEVELAND

Police Receive Report of Alleged Kidnaping Plot

RELATIVES HERE EXPLAIN

Troubles Arising Thru Divorce Given as Cause

H. M. Ebner, 365 200th-st. Cleveland, in a complaint filed with Lima police late Monday, stated that his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Ebner, are separated and that his three brothers, Francis, Rapert and Theodore, drove to Cleveland Monday and kidnaped two younger brothers, Paul, 12, and William, 14, who were living there with the mother.

Ebner asserted that he did not know where the children would be taken and asked Lima police to get the number of the machine in which the alleged kidnapers were traveling, which information he stated, would probably aid in their being apprehended. He neglected to prefer charges with the local department, however.

Francis Ebner, the eldest of the sons who are living with the father, who is the proprietor of the F. X. Ebner Coal Co., 361 S. Main-st, when questioned at his home Tuesday, admitted going to Cleveland and bringing the children to Lima. He denied kidnaping the children, however, and asserted that nothing whatever would ever come of charges which the mother or her oldest son might prefer.

TAKEN AWAY

According to his story, the Cleveland son, with whom the children were living previous to their being brought to Lima Monday, spirited the children to that city from Lima two weeks ago.

He asserts that his mother, two years ago, filed petition for divorce from the father, in which she asked custody of the children. The divorce was never granted and the court ruled that the children should remain with the father. Since that time the mother has been living in Cleveland and the father in Lima, he says.

Two weeks ago Mrs. Ebner returned to Lima, and her actions toward the father and sons here to believe that she intended withdrawing the petition for divorce filed two years ago and resume her former position in the home. He said. Her coming to Lima was only a blind, Francis claims.

While she was in the city, H. M. Ebner, the Cleveland son, came to Lima for a visit and took the children to Cleveland, he says, and the mother followed him to that city. When the children were missed, Francis and his two brothers went to that city and returned the children to Lima, he said.

FOUNDER OF DISCOUNT CO. OFFERS TO SETTLE SUITS

CLEVELAND — An offer to settle suits against him by the Cleveland Discount Co., of which he was founder and former president, has been made by Josiah Kirby, who was charged with the suits against him total between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000. His offer of settlement is $250,000 in bonds, $300,000 in preferred Discount company stock, the value of which is uncertain until reorganization of the company is completed; 3,400 shares of common stock and the cancellation of a claim of 10,000 shares held by Kirby against the company.

Common pleas judge Alvin J. Pearson was informed of the offer yesterday by Discount company receivers. He set July 16 for a hearing. The receivers are said to favor a acceptance.

The suits against Kirby have been pending in common pleas court for more than a year. They were filed after receivers had been appointed at the request of William H. Hopple of Tiffin, Ohio, the largest Discount company stockholder, who charged that Kirby's mismanagement had cost the company millions of dollars.

John D. 85 But Cake Is Lacking

NEW YORK — (By Associated Press) — A reception for a few intimate friends, without even a birthday cake, was the sole celebration of the eighty-fifth birthday of John D. Rockefeller Sr., today.

Rockefeller spent the day at his home at Pocantico Hills.

MAY ADOPT OWN PLATFORM

Socialist Party to Act on Question Today

CLEVELAND — (By Associated Press) — Adjustment of the affairs of the Socialist party of America to the lack, for the first time in its history of a national ticket, occupied the concluding sessions here today of the party's 1924 national convention. The condition resulted from concurring last night with the conference for progressive political action in endorsing Senator Robert M. La Follette as a presidential candidate on his own platform.

It was indicated, however, that while this action precluded nominations by the Socialist party, it did not prevent it from adopting a platform just as the conference for political action voted itself a structure of economic plank after endorsing La Follette's stand of the "Wisconsin pronouncement."

Whether the Socialists would take this action was to be decided today by the resolutions committee.

Election of a national executive committee of seven members and as many alternates was also on the program.

BATTLE CRY

CLEVELAND — (By United Press) — The battle cry of Ohio progressives was sounded today by Peter Witt, chairman of the committee that will conduct the campaign in this state for the election to the presidency of Robert M. La Follette.

Witt appealed to all men and women of Ohio who "place principle above party and to whom patriotism means the triumph of right government over that which is hindered by the greed of the few."

"Senator La Follette," Witt said, "has declared himself as an independent candidate for the office of president. On the eighteenth of this month he is running and will be selected. Then the positions for his presidential electors will be placed in circulation."

OVERHEAD WORK IS RUSHED

Street Railway Experts to Finish in Two Weeks

Altho no definite date has been set by officials of the Lima City Street Railway Co. for the completion of improvement work on the Metrolist overhead, which includes the installation of foundations and the laying of tracks over the viaduct, they expect to be thru on this project within the next two weeks, it was learned Tuesday.

Workmen are at present engaged in laying the foundations, and rails are on hand for use in laying the tracks over their right-of-way as soon as foundation work has been completed.

Following the opening of the overhead to traffic, in conjunction with the improvement of Metrolist from the viaduct to its intersection with Kirby-st, the company expects to extend their lines over the improved street into the district of the Laconic Works, and back again onto the main line, connecting at Vine-st.

EIGHT BUSINESS MEN SUED

Action is Taken Against Dayton Citizens

DAYTON — (By Associated Press) — A suit for thousands of dollars involving royalties and penalties for fraud against eight Dayton citizens, who are directors and stockholders of the Dayton Manufacturing Co., was filed today in federal court here by Clifford M. Cole of Los Angeles, Calif., against three Dayton corporations and eight business men.

The defendants are the Dayton Engineering Co., the Special Tool Engineering Co., the Dayton Manufacturing Co., E. S. Newlin, Frank A. Geyer, Carl S. Newlin, Robert Patterson, Richard H. Grant, Louis Rutenberg, E. J. Barney Gorman and George M. La Follette.

Cole, who says he is inventor of the "Cole" and "Adams" chargeable above party and to whom patriotism means the triumph of right government over that which is hindered by the greed of the few.

"Senator La Follette," Witt said, "has declared himself as an independent candidate for the office of president. On the eighteenth of this month he is running and will be selected. Then the positions for his presidential electors will be placed in circulation."

DEADLOCK IS SHAKEN UP BY SWITCH TO RALSTON

Solid Votes of Oklahoma, Missouri, Nevada and Kansas Swing to the Indiana Senator In Rapid Succession—Smaller Groups Follow

Californian's Floor Leaders are Hastily Summoned To Conference—He Is Urged to Withdraw by Some of His Warmest Supporters

(BULLETIN) — (By Associated Press)

Six more futile ballots today, bringing its total to ninety-three, found the Democratic national convention adjourning for a six hour recess during which conferences were planned in the hope of finding some way thru the whirlpool. McAdoo lines continued to disintegrate during the day's balloting. Governor Smith's forces held fast and the much discussed and looked for booming movement for Senator Ralston was actually developed on the floor. The word went out to stop in the votes for Ralston and in today's balloting had risen to third place on the list with a total of 196 1-4. The Ralston boom was to be given its full chance to develop and if it did not do so the coalition forces would be centered on someone else.

Today's adjournment came on the motion of George Brennan of Illinois, the leader for Governor Smith who wanted time for conferences.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN — (By Associated Press) — The beginning of a slide to Ralston of Indiana shook up the long deadlock today in the Democratic national convention.

In succession the Indiana senator picked up the votes of Oklahoma, Missouri, Nevada and Kansas besides various smaller groups, raising total to a point approaching that of the two leaders.

Meanwhile the McAdoo group had been pounded to a new level and Smith was about losing his own.

There were many signs that despite desperate efforts by the McAdoo managers, the McAdoo column was tottering and might fall in total collapse. How many of the McAdoo supporters might eventually go to Ralston, however, was problematical. Some of them were bringing out Cummings of Connecticut, and other favorites.

CONFERENCE CALLED

The McAdoo floor leaders were hastily summoned meantime to a conference with their candidate and two of his close advisors at the listening post quarters across the street from the convention hall. Some of his warmest supporters were urging McAdoo to formally withdraw and seek a compromise that would give him a say in the selection of a compromise nominee.

After McAdoo had been in conference for an hour with his principal floor managers he sent a messenger to the convention hall to search for William Jennings Bryan and take him to the conference room. Bryan had been on the floor for some time, but a consistent McAdoo supporter, but of acceptance he laid before the convention last week and the Ralston men had been at work trying to win him over to the candidacy of the Indiana.

After the 92nd ballot a motion was made from the Texas delegation for adjournment of the convention to reconvene at a time and place to be fixed by the national committee. The proposal was voted down by many parts of the hall and amid shouts of "sit down" and "throw him out" the motion was ruled out on a point of order.

As the ninety-third ballot was being completed negotiations were on for an adjournment until nine o'clock tonight with a conference in the meantime to which the others hoped to get the McAdoo people. Empty chairs were being voted all over the convention hall on this ballot. Word came that the adjournment plan with time for a conference in the meantime had been agreed to by the leaders.

B. & O. PROMISES RAIL REPAIRS

New Type Flange to be Used at Crossings

A. A. Tanner, general superintendent of the Baltimore division of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, in communication with City Manager C. A. Bingham, had again promised to repair the Main-st crossing of the road immediately, and to put all other crossings within the city in first class condition as soon as possible.

It is the intention of the road, according to Tanner, to use rail flange, which is a steel rail on the street, which will last indefinitely. In the proposed improvement.

Notification has been sent by City Manager Bingham to the P. Wayne Division of the Pennsylvania, in which the deplorable condition of the Baxter-st crossing was outlined, and a request for immediate improvement included.

The Jackson-st crossing of the road is also sadly in need of repair as are several others throughout the city.

Japan Far Ahead Of America In New Cruiser Construction

NEW CHARLES P. STEWART
WASHINGTON—(Special)—The treaty limiting the number of big powers' capital ships, but not their cruisers, Japan, near its capital ship limit, proposes to apply herself with as many cruisers as possible.

America doesn't seem to see the point. In cruisers she's ridiculously weak.

While the treaty didn't limit the number of any country's cruisers, it did limit their size. It limited them to 10,000 tons. It limited them to 8-inch guns.

Japan previously had 13 cruisers, of 6,540 total tonnage, with 5 and 6-inch guns. She was building 4 more, of 5,570 tons each. A view of the treaty she laid down on an additional 4, each 5,000 tons.

Secretary says these 8 ships' tonnage, but it's believed to consist of 3 1/2, 6 and 1-inch guns, for was this all. Work was begun on still another 4 vessels, of 9,000 tons each, with 8-inch guns.

So, before long, Japan will have a cruiser fleet 25 strong, totaling 57,730 tons.

NEW FIVE MODERN SHIPS
The treaty found America with 5 cruisers, built or building, of 5,000 tons each, all with 6-inch guns. These vessels are up-to-date and quite all right, as far as they go, but as the figures show, for strength they don't equal Japan's.

In addition, the United States has practically obsolete so-called cruisers, of the Huron, Pittsburgh and Seattle type, really only gunboats, of neither speed nor gunpower to qualify them for cruiser service of today.

Britain's showing is 35 cruisers of 15,139 total tons, with 4 more building, representing 34,000 tons—altogether 39 ships of 49,730 tons.

A comparison—25,000 American cruisers to Britain's 150,000 and Japan's 157,730—doesn't much in Britain's favor as the figures suggest, since "the British light cruisers, according to a United States official naval report, are built mostly for North Sea work, and are inferior in type, with a few exceptions, to ours or the Japanese."

But as between America and Japan the figures are too weak. America's ships not only are outnumbered but out-weighed, out-gunned and out-manned.

UNBALANCED NAVY
"The navy of the United States," says the secretary of the navy's last report, "is ill-balanced and so deficient in cruiser strength that it would be a serious disadvantage in major operations of any kind. Vessels of the Pittsburgh, Denver and Salem are useful for peace work but would be practically without value in time of war."

"The raiders that drive our commerce from the sea, that attack our transports and supply ships, can never be overtaken unless we build cruisers to do the work."

America's destroyer showing would be excellent if her vessels' quality were in proportion to their number—274, as compared with Britain's 196 in service and building and with Japan's 63, not counting what she is building.

In destroyers," says a United States navy report of March 1914, "we have nearly 90 more than Japan, but Japan is building 31 new ones, while ours are mostly of hasty war construction and two-thirds of them are out of commission. Our boats have no gun power but more torpedo tubes than either the British or Japanese."

"Lack of destroyer speed," adds Admiral R. E. Coontz in his report on the Culebra maneuvers of 1924, "has been keenly felt. Present destroyers had as flashships have not that degree of offensive force, speed and reliability which they ought to have in order to lead. A commander is crowded to a degree incompatible with planning for proper direction of the fleet under command."

WAS FAR BEHIND
Of the submarines the report of March, 1924, navy report says, "we have large numbers but they do not compare with the modern long-radius high-speed submarines Japan has built or is building. We have none of the line-laying type. If we had none last I would say we were inferior to the British but decidedly inferior to Japan."

"It is reported," supplements Capt. F. H. Schofield of the United States navy, "that the latest Japanese submarine can out our Pacific coast, operate and return home without refueling."

Britain has 10 of these long-radius submarines, totaling 19,000 tons; is building none. America has 3 of 3,315 tons, and is building 3, representing 6,374 tons more.

Japan has only 2, each of 1,200 tons—BUT IS BUILDING 23, of 1,365 total tons.

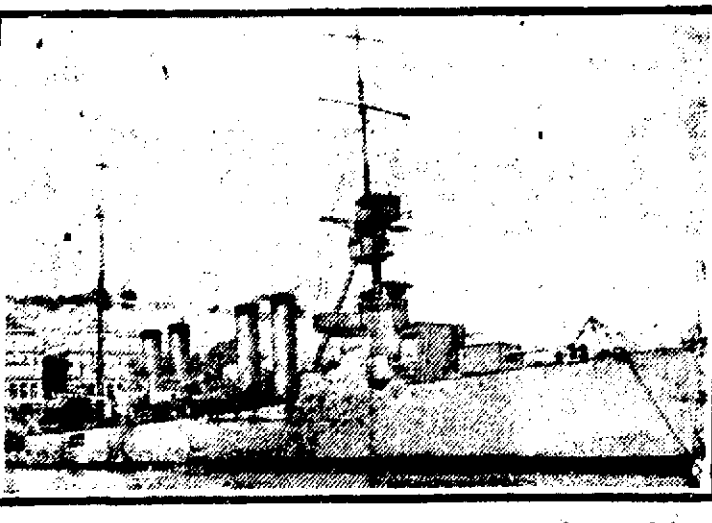

Besides, America has or is building 83 coast defense submarines, of 6,695 total tons; Britain has 3 of 2,445 tons, and is building 27, of 24,450 tons; Japan has or is building 49, of 42,838 total tons.

America and Britain are below the "5-5-3-1.75-1.75" quotas in all types of submarines. Japan, both types, is up to here.

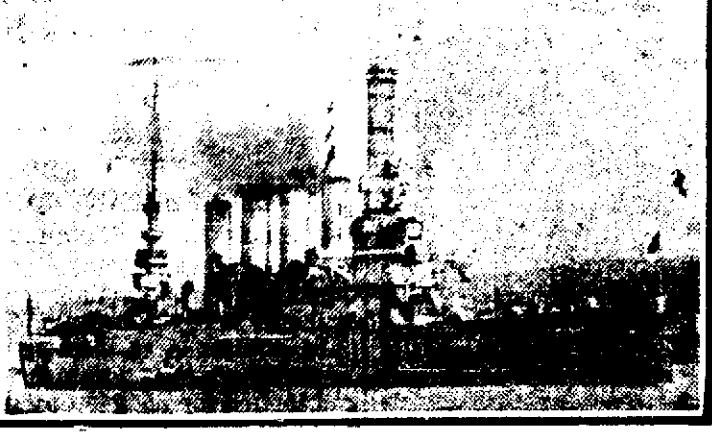

On his Culebra maneuvers report, Admiral Coontz, it will be learned, referred to America's submarine as "the worst of all combat ships taking part."

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Davis, two were visitors in Lima Monday. Davis is director of the band at Reno-by-the-lake, the largest summer colony. His wife is manager of that

WHAT CRITICS SAY OUR NAVY NEEDS

MORE SHIPS LIKE THIS—The U. S. S. Concord, one of America's few modern cruisers.

REPLACEMENT OF SHIPS LIKE THIS—The U. S. S. Pittsburg, an old type of cruiser.

BETTER DESTROYERS—Altho we outstrip Britain and Japan in number of these vessels, most of them, like this group, are hasty war products and out of commission.

MORE SUBMARINES—This is a coast defense type, but we need long radius vessels, say experts.

Admiral R. E. Coontz, former chief of naval operations, and one of the country's greatest naval authorities, decries America's lack of good destroyers and submarines.

M'ADOO COLUMN TOTTERING

hoped would be a nomination of his candidate before tonight.

At the same time, however, both the McAdoo and Smith managers showed signs of a renewed effort. Some observers believed there might be disposition to let the McAdoo and Smith men develop their full strength with the purpose, if neither was nominated, of opening peace negotiations for agreement on a compromise candidate.

KEEP IN PICTURE
The supporters of Robinson of Arkansas, Glass of Virginia, Davis of West Virginia, and several others kept their men conspicuously in the picture, meaning in the hope that when the time came for a compromise they would be able to command a full share of attention.

Called to order at 11 o'clock, today's session began with an invocation by the Rev. Francis Potter of the West Side Unitarian church, New York City, followed by the singing of the Star Spangled Banner by the celebrated Japanese opera star Madame Tamaki Mura.

A resolution expressing the grief of the convention at the death of Calvin Coolidge Jr. was offered by Rabbi Stephen A. Wise, on behalf of Franklin D. Roosevelt, and was adopted by a rising vote.

Then the convention started its day's work with the 88th ballot.

MANY PLANS AFOAT
A number of plans to put a definite end to the deadlock were in the air as the result of early morning conferences, by various leaders, but the effect of these little talks, which followed last night's session and preceded the assembling of the convention today, remained to be disclosed.

The smashing of the McAdoo lines was undertaken by the combined anti-McAdoo forces yesterday in an effort to force him out of the race as a means of ending the deadlock. His leaders, however, admitted no discouragement. David Ladd, the Rockwell, his campaign manager, conceding there had been an "awful drive" on his candidate, asserted that the Californian had no intention, so far as he knew, of withdrawing.

87TH BALLOT
At the end of the 87th ballot, after which the convention adjourned last night as an expression of sympathy to President and Mrs. Coolidge in the death of their son, McAdoo's strength had been cut to 333 1/2 votes, leaving him short temporarily at least, of his one third veto power over the nomination of any other candidate and 25 votes behind Governor Alford E. Smith.

The Smith total fluctuated between 230 and 368 throughout the day and stood at 361 1/2 at the 87th, while that of Senator Ralston of Indiana, put back into the dark horse ranks despite his insistence upon maintaining his withdrawal, was pushed up from five on the 75th ballot to 93 on the 87th. Senator Glass of Virginia also given a "run" climbed from 21 to 78, held third place for a few ballots and wound up fourth with 71. Senator Ralston and Glass both passed John W. Davis whose total slowly declined from 76 1/2 Saturday night to 66 1/2.

NEW PLAN OFFERED
A proposal advanced by Senator A. A. Jones of New Mexico, was before the convention today in the form of a resolution providing that each state delegation select a member to attend a conference for the forming of a ticket and possibly make recommendations for nominations for president and vice president.

Senator Jones, whose state delegation has consistently voted for McAdoo introduced his resolution under unanimous consent and asked that it be laid on the table until today's session. His plan, as outlined, was designed to go further toward a solution than was attempted by the party leaders and candidates' representatives in the week-end conferences.

The offensive against the McAdoo line began during the day yesterday as a sequel of the record reached Sunday, the representative of the other is candidates on releasing their supporters and recommending the action taken by the convention after several more futile ballots freeing all delegates from pledges and instructions. Before the drive ended, the McAdoo column had lost Mississippi, Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Oklahoma and Nevada, this total had been brought 179 1/2 votes from its Saturday closing point, 196 1/2, from the high point it had reached on the first ballot and 97 1/2 lower than it was at the beginning. The delegation lost by McAdoo went, the main, to Senators Ralston and Glass, Governor Ponathan Davis of Kansas, Edward T. Meredith of Iowa and Governor Ritchie of Maryland—favorite son stopping places apparently until they made up their minds, along with the other undecided which of the numerous candidates was to be the compromise hand wagon.

WORK FOR RALSTON
The coalition's power became effective on the 86th ballot and from that time, with few pauses, tore into the McAdoo ranks. At the start Senator Glass was given the dark horse "run," but later Thomas Taggart of Indiana, and Senator Harrison of Mississippi, who were maintaining "compromise candidate" headquarters near the auditorium, put in a little work for Senator Ralston. Their primary purpose, it was made clear, was to drive McAdoo into the second place and hold him there in an effort to demonstrate that it would be useless for him to remain in the race.

The adjournment last night, which coincided with plans laid by the anti-McAdoo coalition before chairman Walsh announced the death of Calvin Coolidge, Jr., was the signal for a number of little conferences among leaders in the hotel rooms. No indications pointing to their effort on today's proceedings, however, came out of any of them during the early hours.

LEADERS IN THE AIR
As the first roll call of the day went forward, it became apparent that the overnight discussion of the party chiefs had had no immediate effect on the situation. As state after state returned the same vote it had cast on the last ballot last night, some of the most experienced of the war horses on the floor admitted they didn't know where they stood or in what direction events might be moving.

One feature of the opening roll call was a gradual slipping away of McAdoo votes here and there, mostly in lots of one or two votes. Ralston was picking up his share of them.

Just before the convening of the convention, about twenty McAdoo leaders, representing most of the states that have been contributing to the McAdoo column, had a conference of an hour and a half with their candidates. The word was sent out afterward that the fight would be continued and that Mr. McAdoo was not considering a withdrawal.

After this conference there was a revival of reports that further attempts would be made to put through a resolution abrogating the two-thirds rule. Such a proposal was voted down yesterday.

In North Carolina's today's first roll call McAdoo suffered a

Jennie Rooney Is Fairest Of Circus Women

Of all the 572 women who travel with the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey circus, which will show here Thursday at the Fair Grounds, Jennie Rooney is said to be the fairest. And among the thousand and more wild animals "Big Bill," the armored rhinoceros easily takes the prize for homeliness. The two form a study in contrasts.

Because of her winsomeness, Miss Rooney has been selected to impersonate "Underland" in the gorgeous fairland pageant which is a feature of the big circus. "Bill" on his part lords it over the thousand animals of the menagerie. The two have but one thing in common. The girl is twenty-four, and as near as animal experts can figure, that is Bill's age.

Were the rhinoceros able to speak, he would no doubt "point with pride" to his long line of ancestors. For they lived on earth nearly forty million years ago, it is declared. Scientists consider him and John Daniel, the gorilla, the most interesting of living animals. "Big Bill" is valued at $50,000 and makes his home in an electric lighted den in the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey menagerie, and aside from eating upward of a bale of hay a day, has nothing to do but sleep.

Jennie Rooney is also proud of her ancestors. They have long been stars of the circus world and Jennie is herself regarded as the greatest woman trapezist of the generation. She, with more than 500 men and women acrobats will be with the combined circus next Thursday.

RIDWELL SERVICES
Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 a. m. at Williams & Davis chapel for Charles A. Bidwell, 48, who committed suicide Sunday afternoon at his home on Independence-rd., by sending a bullet thru his brain. Dependency over ill health was given as the cause for his act. Burial will be made in Woodlawn cemetery.

FEEDERS FIXED
Three speeders were arraigned before Judge Neal R. Poling, at 10 a. m. Tuesday, found guilty, and were fined $10 and costs each. They are W. B. Myers, 846 W. Market-st.; I. Holstein, 422 Kenilworth-av. and Frank Banta, of the Banta and Factory, Elm and Central-sts.

Police received an anonymous report at 6 p. m. Monday that a stranger was riding a motorcycle on the sidewalk in the vicinity of Third and Reese-sts. They were unable to find the man, but learned from bystanders that he had lost his way, and was merely attempting to find his way out of the city.

PAVING FAVORED

Metcalfe-st Project Gets City Commission Approval

Members of the City Commission Monday night passed a resolution in which they went on record as approving the proposed improvement of S. Metcalfe-st. from the Erie railroad to Fourth-st. by paving.

Embodied in the resolution, which will be placed in ordinance form for passage at the next meeting, are provisions for the paving of a strip of ground 6 feet wide on each side of the proposed pavement by the county, together with the installation of curbing, guttering and draining.

COOLIDGE'S SON IS DEAD

to have really been sustained in his repeated rallying from an almost hopeless progress of the disease by his determination to live and his refusal to yield to pain. Intense fever and a falling heart marked the course of his struggle.

It was shortly after six p. m. yesterday that the collapse came and he lapsed out of consciousness. At that time a military guard had been thrown around the quarters assigned for the care of the boy and thru this the only meagre news obtained was that brought out at frequent intervals by E. T. Clark, the president's personal secretary. With oxygen and restorative, his attendants were holding some glow of the spark of life in his wasted frame, but with no hope. At 8 o'clock it was announced that he was dying but it was not until two hours and a half later that the physicians pronounced the end.

TEST OF COURAGE
The boy's courage met the test many times when it was required that he submit to pain in the preparation of blood tests, the use of hypodermic and finally the stomach washing as a last resort to make the taking of nourishment as he began. It was only necessary it was said, to tell him when and where the hurt would come and it would be suffered without complaint or protest.

Messages of sympathy were received by the president and Mrs. Coolidge today from persons of all lands and all walks of life. The tragic death of their son had touched the heart not only of friends but of many others who wish to convey their sympathy and condolences.

Tentative plans for the funeral of Calvin Coolidge Jr. were understood today to include a simple service at the White House at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, the body then to be taken to Northampton, Mass., the Coolidge home, where another service would be held with burial Thursday at Plymouth, Vermont, where the president was born.

Calvin Coolidge Jr., according to White House attaches, is the first son of a president to die while his father held that office since Tad Lincoln died in his father's arms in the White House near the close of the Civil war. So far as they recall, there has been no instance of a president's daughter dying during his occupancy of the White House.

The death of the son of president Coolidge marks the third successive administration in which the family occupying the White House has been visited either by death or critical illness. The first wife of the former president Wilson died in the White House and later Mr. Wilson suffered there the breakdown which left him an invalid until his recent death. Services for President Harding were held in the White House after his sudden death in San Francisco and previously Mrs. Harding had sustained a critical illness there.

GRANDFATHER'S MOURNING
NORTHAMPTON, Mass.—(By Associated Press)—The death of this city, home of the Coolidges, were at half staff today as a mark of its sorrow over the loss of Calvin Coolidge Jr., son of the president and Mrs. Coolidge. At the same time Northampton folk sent their personal tributes to the White House and thence to the nation and the city thru setting Mayor Richard E. Foster's prayer in formal session to Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge, the sorrow that is in the hearts of the people.

In the Coolidge home, one half of a two family house, young Calvin's maternal grandmother, Mrs. L. A. Goodhue, was notified this morning of the death of her favorite grandson. The message from the White House said funeral arrangements would be made later and her plans accordingly were uncertain.

"A kindly, generous, manly boy, and a quiet one," was the housekeeper's estimate of the youngster who is gone—such occasions for scolding over stolen cookies, soiled floors and bed room at dinner having been forbidden.

LONDON FLAGS LOWERED
LONDON—(By Associated Press)—The death of Calvin Coolidge Jr., has caused universal sorrowing here not only among the American residents but also among the English people and in the various foreign quarters of the city.

The flags on the American embassy and the American consulate were placed at half mast while many flags at hotels and other buildings throut London also were half masted. By noon Ambassador Kellogg had received many messages of sympathy for President and Mrs. Coolidge from British officials, foreign embassies and legations and members of the American community.

GUARD OF HONOR
WASHINGTON—(By Associated Press)—Six sailors from the presidential yacht Mayflower, aboard which Calvin Coolidge Jr. had taken many trips with his father, and six marines, were placed about his casket today in the White House as a guard of honor.

The flag on the White House once more was flown at half mast. A white crepe spray was fastened to the door as the token of mourning and a great profusion of flowers were banked in the room where the boy lay.

FARMER FUNERAL
Funeral services for Warren T. Farmer, 52, who was found dead in bed at his home, 810 N. Jefferson-st Sunday night, will be conducted Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the residence. Rev. Victor Smith, pastor of Christ Church, Episcopal, will officiate. Interment will be in Woodlawn cemetery.

The Y. W. C. A. Tatapochoon Wholes and Live Y'er clubs are continuing their activities during the summer at the request of the members.

POLITICS DELAY CONVENTION

Presidential Election to be Held November 1

HAVANA — (By Associated Press) — Cuba's national political convention to nominate presidential candidates will be held later than ever this year, while they usually are over before May 1. Indications now are that the first one will not meet until some time in July. A presidential election will be held in November 1934.

President Alfredo Zayas was elected in 1920 by a combination of the Conservative party with the Popular party, and interest today centers largely in whether he will seek reelection and who will be the candidate of the Liberal party, formerly the strongest party. President Zayas has repeatedly stated that he will seek reelection only if drafted, but newspapers of various shades of political belief are to be credited with opposition to his reelection. It was so strong throughout the island, General Gerardo Machado, lawyer, is shown by the provincial conventions to be the outstanding candidate for the Liberal nomination. Half a dozen other Liberal leaders, however, are being backed as dark horses, and among them are Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, secretary of state, Governor Alberto Barera of Havana province, and Governor Roberto Mendez Penate of Pinar del Rio.

The fight in the Liberal party seems to be delaying the national conventions and the other parties are waiting on it.

Little activity has been shown publicly for any one in the Conservative party, whose outstanding leader is former President Mario G. Menocal, the man who was largely instrumental in making Zayas president. Friends of General Menocal have mentioned his name from time to time, but thus far no real campaign has been waged in his behalf. Santiago Verdeja, representative in congress from Matanzas, has had some backing for the Conservative nomination, and has announced that he was receptive, but General Menocal has not made his position plain.

The Popular party leaders have announced that Zayas is the only man their party will consider as its candidate, and are known to be working for reconstruction of the "Lima Nacional" as the Conservative-Popular combination of 1920 was called.

Farm bureau community meetings will be held on Thursday and Friday nights this week at Lafayette and Spencerville, respectively. At both meetings the women will demonstrate the home-made fly trap and the "quiltless" duster. H. J. Ridge, county farm agent, will give talks on poultry raising.

ORIGINAL OF 'THE AUCTIONEER' STILL SELLING RELICS TO HENRY FORD AND OTHER NOTABLES

BY HAROLD MATSON

BOSTON — (Special) — He came to this country with ambition, knowledge of six languages and two glass bottle knock-knocks. The knock-knocks brought him fame and riches.

David Abram Jacobs, immortalized by David Warfield in his famous play, "The Auctioneer," has continued his unobtrusive way despite the fame and despite the riches. Surely, to look at him and to look at his dusty little shop in Cambridge-st. here one would think he had neither.

But he still sells candlesticks, tapestries, brass candlesticks, miniature ships blown in glass bottles, Windsor chairs, gawdawg galore to those who want—and those include notables from all parts of the country.

Henry Ford just stepped in to buy a round top table. He paid $11 for it. Jacobs gave him a receipt. Ford went out. If a crowd had gathered outside Jacobs would not have known.

It was the same way when David Warfield came in some time ago. He came again and again. And then one day Jacobs received a letter from New York and tickets for "The Auctioneer." Jacobs went and saw himself characterized on the stage selling brass candlesticks, and he went seven times more.

But he returned to his shop "just making a living."

"I don't care for money," he tells you, but one could hardly say that Jacobs passed up any opportunities to make money. In fact he has proved that his "junk shop" is pretty much of a mine.

With his two bottle antiquities brought over from Poland, he started his career as an antique dealer in 1897. The two antiquities he sold for $5 each.

"Ach, this is a good country," he thought, "to make money so easily." Then he bought 400 cigars for $1 and sold them for $1.

"Ach, this is a good country beyond a doubt."

So Jacobs bought and sold and bought and sold and bought and sold until he became famous to his haggling. David Warfield discovered him. Antiques collectors called at his door. Prominent merchants, doctors, lawyers,

WHEAT FIELDS MEASURED FOR STATEWIDE CONTEST

Allen-co wheat fields entered in the state 10-acre wheat contest are being measured this week by H. J. Ridge, farm agent. Those who have entered their fields are Dwight Campbell, Monroeville; Howard Bassett, Amanda; Burt Turner, Auglaize; and J. A. Voss, Bethel. Fields owned by Campbell and Voss were measured Monday while those of Turner and Bassett are being measured Tuesday.

If the Allen-co contestants raise an average of 40 or more bushels of wheat to the acre, they will be eligible to the 10-acre wheat club.

BOY SLEEPS WAPAKONETA.—(Special) — Night Officer John Kreiger searched Monday night for Orville Hut, 12, at the request of his sister and brother. He found the boy fast asleep in a big leather rocker in the Hotel Steinberg. The "missing boy" is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hut residing south of Wapakoneta.

HE CAUGHT HIS TRAIN!

The Los Angeles school board, perturbed by liberal political views of William T. Newton, professor of economics (left), declined to grant him leave of absence in time to catch an eastbound limited for the National Education Association's convention in Washington. But that did not keep Newton from getting there. As soon as school closed, he hopped in an airplane and overtook the train on which his reservations had been made.

THEFT OF AUTOMOBILE REPORTED TO POLICE

Lima police have been notified by Sheriff Brooker, at Western, O., to be on the lookout for a Dodge touring car, driven by Earl Sloan, 20, of Western, who, the sheriff charges, stole the machine from a business man in that city Monday.

A machine, the license on which was issued to John Hickory, 20, W. Western-st., was found parked by police at the corner of Pearl and Jackson-sts. and was brought to headquarters Monday evening.

Joseph Smith, 225 E. Kibby-st., told police that someone stole a generator of his Ford Monday. Leon Pothake, 747 N. Elizabeth-st., and Jesse Works, 361 1/2 E. Main-st., reported bicycles stolen Monday night.

RECORDS IN June reports of poultry flocks in Allen are coming in to the farm bureau office in American Bank-bldg. and a report will be made soon by H. J. Ridge, farm agent, he announced Tuesday.

OLD-TIME DIET IS FADING
Menus Which Permit Regular Eating Replacing it
WEIGHT GAINED OR LOST
Food Combinations Are Arranged on Calorie Plan

Menus, both of which contain a wide variety as well as a practically the same quantities of food, have been compiled by reliable dietitians, whereby a person may eat heartily, and at the same time either gain or lose weight. With the advent of this new system, the unpalatable and unpleasant diet is fast receding into the background.

Too they contain similar quantities of food, both menus contain widely diverse calorie totals. Menus are:
TO LOSE WEIGHT
Breakfast—Four fresh apricots, 11 baked bran muffins, hot water.
Lunch—One cup consommé, 1 piece sponge cake, 1-2 cup red raspberry ice.
Dinner—Four ounces broiled Spanish mackerel, 1 tablespoon sliced potatoes, 1-2 cup string beans, 5 red button radishes, 1 heart of head lettuce with 1 tablespoon minced green pepper and 1-4 grapefruit, 1 tablespoon Camembert cheese, 2 toasted saltines.
Supper—One cup skimmed milk.
Total calories, 1,115. Protein, 22g; fat, 22g; carbohydrate, 66g. Iron, .0179 gram.

The grapefruit used in the dinner salad should be in whole sections of pulp free from skin or connecting tissue. Arrange the fruit in the lettuce heart, pulled open and sprinkle the minced paprika may add zest and a contrasting color.
TO GAIN WEIGHT
Breakfast—Four fresh apricots, 1 soft boiled egg, 2 toasted bran muffins, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 cup cocoa.
Mid-morning lunch—One glass whole milk, 2 graham and raisin cookies.
Lunch—One cup consommé, 1 tablespoon cheese croquettes, 2 tablespoons Spanish rice, 3 large green olives, 1 large piece sponge cake 1-2 cup red raspberry ice garnished with 2 tablespoons whipped cream, 1 slice bran bread, 1 tablespoon butter.
Afternoon tea—One cup iced tea with 1 tablespoon sugar and the juice of 1-2 lemons, 2 nut bread sandwiches.
Dinner—One cup cream of tomato soup with 2 tablespoons whipped cream, 4 ounces broiled Spanish mackerel, 3 tablespoons sliced potatoes, 1-2 cup string beans with 2 teaspoons butter, 5 button radishes, 1 heart of head lettuce with 1 tablespoon minced green pepper, 1-4 grapefruit, 2 tablespoons olive oil, 2 tablespoons Camembert cheese, 2 toasted saltines, 2 slices bread 1 tablespoon butter.
Bedtime—One cup whole milk.
Total calories, 2,958. Protein, 29g; fat, 177g; carbohydrate, 1,144g. Iron, .0184 gram.

COLLEGE HEAD WATCHES STUDENT NUMBER GROW
WALLA WALLA, Wash. — Vice Dr. Stephen B. L. Penrose, who in this summer's commencement celebrated his thirtieth anniversary as president of Whitman College here, took over the school, only two students attended it. The enrollment now is 500, the institution having set this limit 10 years ago. Dr. Penrose is one of the oldest college presidents in the country in length of service. He was graduated from Williams College at 21 and was elected president of Whitman nine years ago.

GONE Skin Blemishes All Skin Defects

LIMA HAS 1,300 HOTEL ROOMS
Approximately 1,000 Persons Accommodated

Lima, for a city of its size, has probably the best hotel accommodations in this part of the country. Statistics compiled Tuesday show that there are 23 hotels in the city, three of them being Class A and four Class B, with a total of 1,300 rooms. An average of approximately 1,000 people are housed daily in the local hotels, the figures show, twenty-five per cent of them being transients and the others regular roomers.

With such accommodations, Lima is an ideal place for conventions. Recognition of this fact is being taken throughout the state and nation, for in the past few years Lima has had a number of state and district conventions of various associations and clubs. More are coming next year.

AMERICA HOLDS POULTRY LEAD, BRITISH DECLARE

LONDON—In proposing the health of the American and Canadian delegates to the world poultry congress recently held in Barcelona, who were entertained by the British government here, Minister of Agriculture Noel Buxton admitted that America and Canada were ahead of Great Britain in poultry culture. But he added that he was proud of the fact that Great Britain's breeding stock was in demand in other lands. Britain, he said, had not yet developed her poultry industry sufficiently to meet her own demands, but she supplied the market for other people.

The British government, the speaker concluded, was very grateful to America for the courtesy shown to their representative, A. P. Francis, on the occasion of his visit to the United States last year for research work in poultry culture.

PRINCE OF WALES IS TO VISIT NEW YORK
NEW YORK—The Prince of Wales plans to come to New York in September to attend the polo matches between America and Great Britain, the New York Times says. The prince has cabled to the United States polo association accepting an invitation to be its guest at the matches.

Relief from Baby-worries

Doubly blessed is the home where pure Milk of Magnesia is on hand to meet baby-emergencies. As a harmless neutralizer of infant's milk it is unsurpassed. Careful and consistent use of pure Milk of Magnesia has kept millions of babies from the stomach-aches that cause so much anxiety.

Used as a mouth wash it minimizes teeth troubles, keeping the gums in wonderful condition and promoting the development of sound hard teeth. A little pure Milk of Magnesia is as splendid as a laxative for children and remedies constipation without forming habits. But don't use it for children or infants unless you know it is pure. The Government considers this important and gives a standard of purity in the U.S.P.

To be sure of getting the U.S.P. standard, ask for A.D.S. Milk of Magnesia. This is one of the few Milks of Magnesia to meet the U.S.P. test. By comparison, it is one of the highest in quality—one of the most perfectly combined magnesias on the market. If you are not sure what this means in quality and efficiency, ask your neighborhood druggist, whose name appears below. He knows, better than the layman, what purity means in Milk of Magnesia and he is willing to stand by his knowledge of A.D.S. Milk of Magnesia with a money back guarantee.

Use the Milk of Magnesia recommended by the 28,000 leading druggists and pharmacists, members of the American Drug-Syndicate. These druggists absolutely guarantee the purity and efficiency of their products. Look on this advertisement for the name of the A.D.S. druggist in your neighborhood. He guarantees positively to give you your money back on any A.D.S. product if you are not satisfied that it is the biggest value you have had in a fine drug product. Remember the name and note these unusual prices for the two "plus-sizes" of A.D.S. Milk of Magnesia.
Large size 16 oz. bottle 50c.
Small size 6 oz. bottle 25c.

WELFARE LAW IS BENEFICIAL

Sweden Provides Compulsory Care of Children

STOCKHOLM—(By Associated Press)—Compulsory removal of wayward or depraved children from their homes into public custody, and subsequent supervision up to the age of 18, is provided for in a new law for the care of children which has just been passed by the Riksdag. The law further provides for public care of children who are found to be exposed to undesirable influences and in danger of becoming depraved. Children removed from their homes by government inspectors and placed in government institutions, or in good private homes in the country, where they receive expert training and can grow up in healthful surroundings. Social service of a similar sort has been carried on in the cities of Sweden, especially Stockholm, for many years by municipal and state boards, who place the children in desirable homes far out in the country, and pay an annual compensation to these homes. In many cases a strong bond of affection grows up between these waifs of the slums and their foster parents, which militates in legal adoption.

Under the new law every city and parish will have a special board for the care of children, including local pastors and teachers as permanent members, while inspectors will travel all over the country for the purpose of observing and controlling individual development. Thousands of country homes receive the poor children of the city as guests during the summer and send them back to their homes with cheeks round and rosy.

Nation-wide and energetic philanthropic work is also carried out by the Swedish society "Save the Children," the campaign culminating in an annual Children's Day, when large sums are raised in order to provide summer vacations in children's colonies by the seaside, and in some cases on islands specially reserved.

SKAT WATCHING WEATHER MOVES

Skat is watching to see which way the weather is going to jump. The sun seemed to shine a little brighter a day warmer Tuesday and Skat began to have hopes that circus day Thursday will be bright and warm. Skat got all the mud he wanted when Al G. Barnes' circus was here and he wants dry weather. But with the weatherman predicting clouds Tuesday night and Wednesday with warm weather in the offing Skat fears for the worst.

TWO QUIZZED IN GIRL'S DEATH

Baseball Players Questioned in Kansas City Tragedy

KANSAS CITY — (By Associated Press) — Two members of the Kansas City American Association baseball team were questioned by police today after the death of Blanche Pierce, 27, in a fall down an elevator shaft at the Radisson Hotel.

Bill Skiff, catcher, and Pete Swett, right fielder, were taken to police headquarters and their statements taken.

According to Mrs. Edith Heury, manager of the hotel, several baseball players were staging a "party" in the hotel.

Police announced that Miss Pierce and her sister had attended the party given by the baseball players in a room on the tenth floor of the hotel.

About 3 a. m. the sisters left the room to go to their own quarters on the fifth floor, intending to go down the back stairs.

An open door leading to the freight elevator shaft, was next to the stair landing and Miss Pierce mistook the elevator opening for the stairway. She struck the top of the elevator at the second floor and died a half hour later.

NEAR FIST FIGHT IN CONVENTION

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN NEW YORK — (By United Press) — A near fist fight marred the placidity of the Ohio section in the Democratic national convention this afternoon.

It followed attempts of W. W. Durbin and his followers to swing the majority Ohio vote to Senator Ralston.

Burr Gogger, Cuyahoga county leader, Charles S. Truax state director, of agriculture, clashed in the aisle over the recording of Mrs. W. A. Siddall's vote for Ralston.

Mrs. Siddall had left the convention with instructions that her vote be cast for Carter Glass of Virginia.

Instead, according to Gogger and Truax, Durbin recorded her vote for Ralston.

You fellows are just stealing votes for Ralston," Gogger shouted at them.

Other delegates stepped in and prevented what promised to be a lively mixup.

VINE WEEKS SICKNESS CAUSES WOMEN'S DEATH

Mrs. Jimmie Morgan, 66, died Tuesday morning at her home, 770 W. Wayne-st., following an illness of nine weeks.

She was born in Quinton, Ill., September 15, 1857 and is survived by three daughters and two sons. They are Mrs. Lula Dunlap, of Columbus; Mrs. Anna Herder, Mrs. Ethel Wolf and William Taylor, all of Lima. Several sisters, one brother and 11 grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at Unionville, in Unionville. Interment will be in Mitchell cemetery nearby.

Mainly About People

Police investigated without success a report from H. W. Rank, watchman, of 900 E. Elm, at 2:30 a. m. Tuesday, to the effect that a suspicious man was prowling about the home of Edward Neff, 967 E. North-st. When he found he was being watched, fled west of North-st. No trace of him could be found.

Dr. C. A. Rowand, pastor of Trinity M. E. church, was the speaker at the regular Tuesday noon meeting of the Lima Kiwanis club at the Barr hotel. His subject was "Have a Heart."

Plans were discussed at a meeting of the farm bureau board of directors Monday night for putting a sweet clover field day in Alto August 11. H. J. Ridge, farm agent, reports.

BRITISH HOUSE RENTS SHOW SLIGHT DECREASE

LONDON — Despite great influx of visitors for the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley, British houses and flats in London are renting at a slightly lower figure than at the same time last year, according to estate agents.

Flat owners who expected to get at high figures found, to their disappointment, that the newcomers preferred to stay at hotels, and prices dropped shortly before the influx of travelers began.

One estate agent said that the drop in furnished house and flat rents was greater than for the year.

90% of all Hair Troubles Due to Four Causes

Science has perfected a new scalp treatment. It works in an entirely new way. It corrects hair troubles by attacking the causes. It treats simultaneously each of the four conditions to which 90% of all hair troubles are due.

It removes dandruff, dead tissue and caked sebum that clog up the hair follicles, checking the hair out of the hair and preventing new growth. It penetrates deep into the hair shaft, cleansing it of impurities and destroying harmful bacteria that sap hair vitality. It stimulates the scalp tissues to action, increasing the blood circulation and bringing proper nourishment to the starved hair roots.

It regulates the oil glands to give off the proper amount of sebum required to lubricate and preserve the hairs themselves.

The results are amazing. Dandruff and itching scalp disappear almost overnight. Falling hair ceases within thirty days. The hair grows thicker and heavier—full of life and vigor. Soon new shoots start to grow.

30 DAY TRIAL OFFER

We want you to try STIM at our risk. To-day get a single package of STIM SCALP TREATMENT. Use it for 30 days. Then if you are not delighted with the improvement in your condition you can have your money back. Our guarantee slip in every package protects you fully. The Sanitas Co., 304 W. Brooklyn, N.Y. Obtainable at:

Hunter's Drug Store, 48 Public Sq.; Paramount Drug Store, Main and Wayne; Argonne Drug Store, Opp. Post Office.

Mr. M. L. Oglesby, Special Representative, Bureau of Explosives, will give an illustrated Safety Lecture at Y. M. C. A. Auditorium, 7:30 P. M., Thursday, July 10th. Shoppers, railroad employees and others interested are cordially invited and urged to attend.

Why We Develop

The pestiest enemy of a farmer or home gardener is the cutworm. Other pests annoy the man coaxing food out of the soil. But for sheer cussedness, the cutworm is worst of all.

Maybe you know how the cutworm operates? He waits until night, when the gardener is asleep, dreaming of his harvest. Then the cutworm starts along a row of say, beans. He nibbles thru at the soil line until the bean stalk falls over like a chopped-down tree. Then he leaves fallen plant, doesn't bother to eat the rest of it.

The cutworm is an out-and-out destroyer. One wouldn't mind so much if it devoured the whole plant. But this thing of operating like a logging crew felling trees, and then leaving them to rot strikes a gardener as malicious vandalism.

Every form of life exists for a definite purpose. It has its function in creation. The cutworm simply does what he is intended to do. He is a destroyer, pure and simple, for he levels a whole row of vegetation before he gets thru, the one bean stalk would feed him thru his entire lifetime.

Nature makes us pay the full price for everything we get.

She sends destroyers like the cutworm to keep us constantly fighting to earn our living.

Nature doesn't want us to have too easy a time. If we had, we'd get lazy—wouldn't supply the toil that develops our brains and characters and makes humanity progress.

No muscular strength without exercise. No wisdom or knowledge without hard thought. No strength of character without temptations and ordeals.

Life is full of cutworms—pests, goat-getters, seemingly unnecessary annoyances. But that's because life is to the mind and spirit just what a gymnasium is to the athlete.

There is always more purpose or destiny in trouble than in a "soft time." No man is ever a top-notch canoeist until he gets caught out on the water in several big storms. No man really knows an auto or other piece of mechanism until it breaks down and he has to repair it. And no man or woman experiences the real purpose of life until they go thru trouble and conquer it.

It is like competitors or enemies—they are more valuable than friends and associates, for they make us fight for the worthwhile things that can be obtained no other way.

Saving Lives

The Save-a-Life-League is increasing its membership rapidly. It was founded eight years ago by Rev. Dr. Harry Marsh Warren. In a sermon he urged people, who intended to commit suicide, to write or visit him first. Gradually a clearing house for misery was built up. League members keep their eyes open for unfortunates in wretched situations that might tempt them to take their lives.

Twelve thousand Americans commit suicide a year. Dr. Warren says he finds that a promise to think it over until tomorrow usually gives the despondent a new grip on life. This is true of nearly all situations that seems hopeless at the time. Wait and think!

Foreign Trade

Our business relations with other countries in 1923 paid a net profit of about $1.40 for every American man, woman and child.

All transactions involving payments between America and other countries left us, when the books were balanced, 152 million dollars to the good. Billions, of course, were involved in the exchange of goods—exports and imports.

The government report discloses that Uncle Sam figures 30 million dollars worth of liquor was smuggled into the United States last year.

Our Food

Our generation eats 30 per cent more food and 371 per cent more sugar than our grandparents, claims the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.

The claim about increased sugar consumption is indisputable.

But we doubt that modern people eat about a third more food than their grandparents, who thought nothing of a pound of ham, four eggs and 25 flapjacks apiece for breakfast. Statistics may indicate more food is being consumed. Our guess is that the increase goes into the garbage pail.

Then and Now

Forty years ago, kerosene was the main byproduct of crude oil. Around refineries, men drew off a barrel of gasoline to wash a pair of overalls, and dumped it out. Then came the auto.

This year, refiners say, 9,177 million gallons of gasoline will be produced in the United States. This will be a fifth more than in 1923. How long, at this rate of increase, until the underground oil reserves will be exhausted?

The future fuel, and probably within your lifetime, will be alcohol or electricity sent by radio from central stations.

Rapid Recovery

When the World War ended, there was a lot of talk about it being centuries before the world would recover. Looks now as if most of the material damage will be repaired in one generation.

Recovery is taking place amazingly fast. The income of all the people of the nations that fought in the war was about 93 billion dollars in 1913. Their income now is over 82 billions a year, measured in the same coin—pre-war gold dollars. And income is a mirror of production—human toil.

Heat From Sun

A machine using mirrors to capture and focus the sun's rays heated an oven to a temperature of 175 degrees centigrade last year at Mount Vernon, Calif. Dr. Abbot, astronomer of Smithsonian Institution, built and operated the "solar cooker."

This summer he will renew his experiments on the practical basis of trying to use the heat of the sun for kitchen cooking. It would be all right except on cloudy days. Attempts to harness the sun will be more or less futile until a way is found to "can" its heat for uninterrupted use. It is a fascinating future possibility.

MID-SUMMER MADNESS

LIMA NEWS HEALTH SERVICE

FROM COLIC TO MEDICINE HABIT

In our last confabulation on infantile colic—which you may remember I first denied and then treated with due regard for the baby—we gave the baby everything we had for colic except castor oil. We saved the castor oil for today's record. That's generally the best thing to do with castor oil. Save the oil and spare the baby. The one condition which justifies the administration of castor oil to a young infant is diarrhea, and that condition is usually wanting in the common description of colic.

The ulterior motive for my rash denial of the occurrence of such an ailment as colic in babies was the hope that I might discourage the habit of feeding the baby medicine for every little twist or squirm or whoop. I wish I could make every mother and prospective mother realize what a grave matter the first dose of medicine is for a baby. I wish I could arouse in every mother's heart a feeling of jealous resentment against the gratuitous suggestion of medicine of any kind for the baby by neighbors, casual visitors, relation in laws, fishwives or unprofessional nurses. Anyhow, that's the way I'd feel about it if it were my baby. There is only one person who is competent to advise the first dose of medicine for a baby, and that is the doctor, and he can't be any too careful about it.

If it isn't colic it is generally constipation that leads to the establishment of the medicine habit. By the medicine habit I mean merely the habit of resorting to medicine for every little thing, real or imaginary, that may be wrong, and not necessarily "dope"—narcotic drugs. Any medicine, no matter what its character, Castor oil, for example—the usual introduction to the physic habit, a habit which has done enormous harm to the people who harbor the notion that there is something beneficial to health in the unnatural process of catharsis.

When your baby is delivered to you the chances are that he (or she if you're extra lucky) is fairly sound and will work all right and give good satisfaction, provided you take good care of him and permit no one to practice running him for you. You make a big mistake if you start introducing the baby medicine the very first time you experience any difficulty in keeping him going right. Take the wonderfully coordinated or interdependent alimentary functions, for example.

Dare's Mentha Pepsin Best for Stomach

Money Back if the First Bottle Doesn't Do You the World of Good.

One dose of Dare's Mentha Pepsin relieves stomach distress in just a few minutes. Gas, sourness, belching and heaviness quickly fade away. CONSCIENCE

"What is the law?" said I, and he looked rather solemnly at me. Puffed on his cornucop pipe and blew a smoke cloud and a ring or two. "The law?" said he. "Well, I don't know."

By what's in books I never go; When I'm in doubt I always do. Just what my conscience tells me to.

"I've never had to run and look into some dry and musty book To find some way to get along. The law may legalize a wrong. But if my conscience argues no I do what's right and let it go. A wider line I'd rather draw Than that demanded by the law."

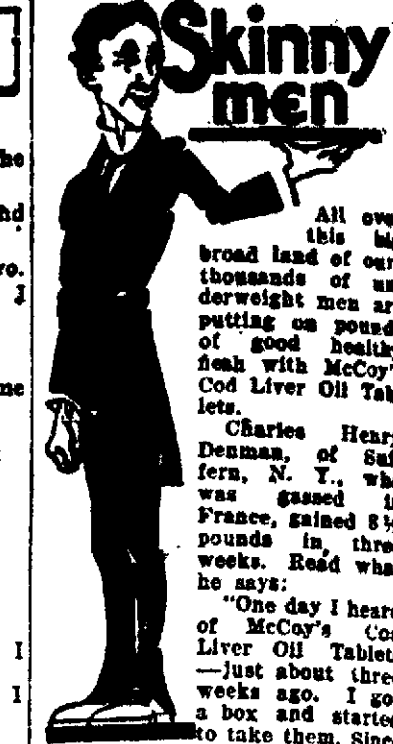

"Contracts and printed forms I dread. My conscience knows just what I said. And just what promises I made. And when the bills I owe are paid. My conscience never looks about For petty ways of slipping out. It sometimes says: 'This seems unfair. But just remember you keep square.'"

"When there's a doubt I always find My conscience quickly speaks its mind. It has no 'ifs' or 'buts' or 'ands.' On what is fair it squarely stands. And argues with me, day and night. To do just what I know is right. If to its guidance I pay heed, I think that's all the law I need." (Copyright, 1924).

50 MORE HOMES PLANNED

Data Given by Exalted Ruler at Boston Meeting

BOSTON — (By Associated Press) — The inauguration of a national welfare movement by the Elks was urged by Grand Exalted Ruler James G. McFarlane, of South Dakota, in his annual report delivered at the grand lodge session of the order's sixtieth annual convention here today.

Whether this is to be a work of moral or specific hospitalization, McFarlane said, "or some road education campaign or creation and maintenance of some of the agency or institution for the relief of the people" should be determined by such committee or committees as you may determine. I recommend the creation of such an agency to report our next annual meeting."

A suspension of the charter of the local lodge "for violation of the prohibition law," was announced by McFarlane.

A violation of the federal prohibition law, he said, "with unimpaired knowledge of some of the officers and members of the lodge, conditions, made my claim the suspension was indefinite, added and awaited the action of the grand lodge."

The addition in the past year of 87,700 members and 26 lodges reported by the grand exalted ruler.

He said that plans for the construction of 50 new Elks homes at a cost of $5,000,000 had been proved by him and the grand ruler.

UAINI SIGN IS GOOD APPEAL

man Emigrants Warned in Quaker Method

ONSTANCE Germany — (By Associated Press) — At a fork of road just out of the village of Olan near Lake Constance, a German which reads, "Get thinking of going to the U. S. please take this route," been placed by Altho it roused the local authorities at first, it was permitted to remain in place when its motive was known by Hans Durst, its author. It is in the village of Olan.

A number of W. and R. localities in this part of Germany had been talking to North and South. Durst explained to the police and this fact inspired to take some action to make the emigrants think before taking the final step and take them to foreign lands.

On post points to a dirt road which leads to a hill, the sign commands a view of the country for many miles and W. and R. being nestled below.

The intending emigrants, Durst said, Durst to the sign, and see their own country from my hill. I like what a beautiful view have been living in, and give up the idea of their fortunes elsewhere. There is no coming to the U. S. this year or next. I put my sign on stone at the cross roads for all to see.

Bullets sang around her head. But Mary Sather, cashier for a Seattle taxicab company, stayed right in the bandit chase. Miss Sather and Herbert Jackson, superintendent of the company, had started for a bank with $2000. Three men drove up, crowded the taxicab up against a curb and seized the money. Jackson whirled his car around and he and Miss Sather started in pursuit. The gunmen, however, escaped after a several-block running battle.

SCOUTS TO AID CAMPAIGN

Lima Troops to Collect Near East Relief Gifts

One hundred and fifty boy scouts will help put over the Near East Relief campaign in Lima next Saturday. H. H. Kreider, of Cleveland, who is in charge of the campaign in Lima, announced Tuesday that the necessary arrangements have been made with Executive Joseph M. Butcher, and other boy scout officials.

At a meeting which was held at 10 a. m. Tuesday at the Sigma theatre, the scouts agreed to take over the money-raising portion of the campaign. Following the meeting a film telling what scouts are doing 8,000 miles from here in the Near East, was shown.

Eli Stolaf, 234 N. Jefferson, former Near East worker who spent several years with the association in countries of eastern Europe, will take part of the campaign in conjunction with Kreider and the boy scouts, and will help put it over. Two sons of B. B. Stolaf, one of whom is present with the Near East Relief in Mardin, Turkey, spent apprenticeships with the association. William is at present in Turkey and Frank is in New York City in a theological seminary. He is planning to return to Syria.

Saturday's campaign will be to collect clothing and milk and raise a cash fund all of which will be sent as Lima's contribution with that of the state of Ohio to destitute children of the Near East. Jackie Coogan, whose parents are financing the campaign, will accompany what is expected to be a million dollar relief ship, to Europe.

Coogan is expected to spend an hour with Lima kiddies about August 8.

INDIAN MISSION LEADER WITH HISTORY IS DEAD

DOUGLAS, Alaska — Dick Morgan an Indian who died recently, was a historic character of Alaska. He was recalled by the Rev. A. P. Kashevaroff, of Juenaau.

Morgan, whom the United States naval authorities had employed as a policeman nearly 50 years ago, was sent with a message from Captain L. A. Beardslee to settle differences that had arisen between the Kookwah and Ganaadi tribes north of Sitka.

Morgan returned February 12, 1880, with word to Captain Beardslee that the Indian factions would remain peaceful and that the white men could enter the country without fear. As a result of this policy the Chukiat country was opened to miners.

INVERARY, Scotland — The idea that Dukes can't and won't do manual labor is dispelled by a visit to Inverary Castle, in the grounds of which the owner, the Earl of Duke of Argyll, is working as a stonemason's laborer. He carries heavy stones, takes orders from the foreman and keeps strict trade union hours.

The duke, who is also Keeper of the Great Seal of Scotland, is helping to erect a belfry. He wears a kilt and a grey woven shirt, and rolls up his sleeves to tackle his job.

Convention Notes

NEW YORK — (By Associated Press) — The pocketpicking profession has lost prestige with the Democratic visitors to New York, which has maintained, elsewhere at any rate, a reputation for harboring the most skillful practitioners of that subtle craft. In all the great crowd that has listened to the often nerve numbing repetition of 87 roll calls for a presidential, not one person has reported a touch from the light fingered experts.

James J. Walsh explains that he was made chairman of the Connecticut delegation because he's an expert accountant. After considering the matter of 87 ballots, he concedes that "they need one for this delegation" since each member has seven tenths of a vote.

It has not been determined whether his decision involved an insinuation or was merely a gesture of optimism, but Tex Rickard who holds the lease on Madison Square Garden put workmen on the job yesterday in the basement tearing down some of the temporary booths erected for the convention to make room for four thousand lockers to accommodate indoor swimmers. He has been planning for several weeks to open the garden's pool immediately after the convention.

Someone suggested that the minutely peerless announcer from Alabama Governor Blanton, could get the nomination because of the hit he made with the refrain "Alabama a ma twenty four votes for Underwood." But it was feared Blanton could say "Brandon" the way Brandon can say Underwood and besides he firmly intends to say the same thing on the last ballot which, he often predicts will make the Senator the presidential nominee.

WEDDING IS PLEASING EVENT

Pink roses and gladioli, delphinium and similar formed the artistic decorations for the wedding of Mrs. Maud Mathews and Harry L. Solomon, which was solemnized Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Solomon, 335 S. Jackson-av., in the presence of about forty relatives and intimate friends. Rabbi Harry Margolis of Paducah, Ky., officiated at the marriage, performed before an improvised altar in the living room. Palms and baskets of the pink and blue flowers were banded high before the fireplace and mantle.

Proceeding the ceremony, Mrs. Ralph Shrider, harpist, and Mrs. Gale Dunifon, violinist, played, "O Promise Me," and to the strains of Lohengrin's, "Bridal Chorus," the attractive bride descended the stairs, preceded by the flower girl, little Miss Louise Solomon, and ring bearer, Julius Solomon, Jr. From the stairs, the bride and groom proceeded to the altar together.

The bride wore a gown of coral flat crepe and wore a band of silver ribbon and orange blossoms in her hair. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Little Miss Solomon wore a dainty dress of pale blue georgette and carried a basket of roses. Master Solomon, dressed in white, carried a white lily, in which was the wedding ring.

Immediately following the marriage, a wedding dinner was served at the Hotel Norval, covers being laid for thirty-eight guests. The table, placed in the lounge of the hotel, was in the shape of an U, and appointments were of an U and blue. Bowls of the pink roses and blue delphinium were placed the entire length of the table, as well as the pink candles tied with pink ribbons. Place cards were of pink and white and marking each place were attractive favors. Smilax was used to decorate the walls and lamps in the lounge.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon left at midnight for Chicago, from where they will go to Charlevoix and Mackinac for several weeks. Mrs. Solomon traveled in three-piece suit of blue and gold tulle and crepe. After August the first, they will be at home at 1222 State-st.

Among guests at the wedding and festivities following were these out-of-town guests: Mr. and Mrs. William Friberg of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Moses and family of Charleston, W. Va., Miss Emma Moses of New York City, Mrs. M. Metzger of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Solomon and Miss Lena Solomon of Fremont.

Here's the summer girl at her summeriest in a gown of rose-colored crepe embroidered in deeper tones and fluffed up with much ostrich. There's a cape-like arrangement in the back which may be worn as a scarf over one arm, if desired. The wide circular flounce which gives such fullness at the hemline is one of its most important touches sartorially. Paris is tiring a little of the straightline frock and is working out very interesting effects with circular lines.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart: I am a girl, 14 years of age and I would like to ask you a few questions. Please give the ages and addresses of the following movie stars: Lloyd Hughes, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Gloria Swanson, Rudolph Valentino, Jackie Coogan, Baby Peggy and May McAvoy.

Can you tell me if it is true that I have a dark complexion. What would make me have a fair complexion? Do you think my questions are sensible?

Would you give me the nicknames and meanings of the following names: Dorothy, Mary and Ethel. May I write again?

Lloyd Hughes is 25 years of age; his address is 601 S. Ramart-st., Los Angeles; Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., is 17 years of age; his address is 1520 Vine-st.; Gloria Swanson, who is 29 years of age, can be found at 1520 Vine-st., care Famous Players; "Rudy" who is 31 years of age, can be found at the Famous Players studio, 1520 Vine-st.; Jackie Coogan is 10 years of age and can be addressed 1540 Broadway, New York City and May McAvoy's age is 21 years and she can be found at 5341 Melrose-av., Hollywood, Cal.

No, Gloria is not dead, Jean, but busy preparing new pictures for you and I to enjoy. The following face bleach will not injure the face: benzoin tincture, 4 grams; borax, 8 grams; spirits camphor, 10 grams; orange flower water, 100 grams.

Yes. Dorothy means gift of God; usual nicknames are Dot, Dottie and Dodo; Mary means bitter and Mae is a usual nickname and Ethel means noble.

Dear Susie: We are two girls of 14 and 15 and are in the first and second grade of high school. Is that all right? Are we too young to go with boys? We don't want to go with boys. Is that all right? How long should we wear our dresses? Do you like the shingled bob? Sheik doesn't like to have her hair shingled, how can I stop her? Have you got your hair bobbed? Sheik is a brunette and Sheik a blond. What colors would we look good in? Are we too young to read love stories? What are some good ones?

What day was Feb. 14, 1909 on? April 19, 1907? How was the weather those days? How do you like this stationery? Well, I guess I'll write off. Santa Claus waits the time. What is a good way to spend Sunday afternoons?

Yes, you are in the correct grades for your ages. Yes, I do think you girls are too young to go about with the boys. Wait a few years. Quite all right not to use cosmetics. Sheik and Sheba. The length of your dresses depends upon your height. Wear them a becoming length, you are too young to let styles govern your dress. Personally, I think the "shingle" bob is becoming to very few people; also, the style is a very popular one right now. No, girls, my tresses are long and I think, always will be. Why does not Sheba have her hair shingled and then convince Sheik that it is becoming? In the first place, girls, you are too young for love stories, and in the second place, I can't name you any, because I don't read them. Read books and stories that will improve your mind.

Feb. 14 was on a Monday and April 19 on a Sunday. I am unable to find the weather conditions on those days. Your stationery is quite all right, girls. There are various ways of spending the afternoon: reading, walking, picnics, enjoying music or games.

CARRIAGE MOTOR HORNS LIVE BELGRADE STREETS DELPHOS — On all the horse open carriages which have taken the place of taxicabs, the mobile horns have replaced the shrill yell of the driver as he tears thru the streets, and all because of a young American. He came here to take over an automobile agency and found an overstock of old horns. Something, curiously enough, the city authorities passed an ordinance compelling horse vehicles to be equipped with these signals. The American is happy and so is the populace, because the constant shriek of the horns gives the city an appearance, or rather sound, of bustling modernity.
